Experience

Boston University
Video Production Intern
September 2022 - Present (11 months)
Boston, Massachusetts, United States

During my semester long internship at Boston University, I worked in the athletic communication department in order to create content for a variety of athletic teams, including basketball, hockey, and soccer. During my internship, I worked in the office to edit photo and video content for social media, in addition to capturing photo and video content during athletic games. My main responsibility was to work as a member of the broadcast staff in order to broadcast our athletics to ESPN+ networks.
